Sunday a.m.

My dear ones:

952

Just arrived here in good shape, I am very tired Helen seems O.K. This is Exeter I don't know whether will take Car over to L. Cove pretty soon - they run hourly, or we may burn around here for awhile - looks like quite a good sized town Helen has been counting the rivers + raving over the wild flowers; the past ure is very poor + grain is short. Had a long wait at Ely last night but got down to depot about 30 mins before train left, got right on + put Sis right to bed she was so tired didn't go asleep for long time, propped her up so could look out until went asleep she is as good + having a good time. See what a crowd came out - every thing full, hope you + Jack are enjoying good. Sunday love, wish you all were with us.
